

Peace White Dove

Words and Music by Melanie Dolinski

Peace, white dove, fly home to me,
then carry your thoughts far across the sea.
Peace, white dove, fly home to me,
then carry your thoughts far across the sea.

Flying, flying, looking for a place to rest,
Crying, crying, windswept by war.

Peace, white dove, fly home to me,
then carry your thoughts far across the sea.
Peace, white dove, fly home to me,
then carry your thoughts far across the sea.

Flying, flying, looking for a place to rest,
Crying, crying, windswept by war.

Peace, white dove, fly home to me,
then carry your thoughts far across the sea.
