

Sea Fever (Beaconsfield Festival Joint Song) LYRICS

VERSE 1 (unison)

I must down to the seas again, to the lonely sea and the sky,
And all I ask is a tall ship and a star to steer her by.

VERSE 2 (Alto and Bass lower harmony)

I must down to the seas again, for the call of the running tide,
A wild call and a clear call that cannot be denied.

CHORUS (2 part harmony)

And the wheels kick and the wind's song,
And the white sails are shaking,
And a grey mist on the sea's face,
It's a grey dawn breaking_____,
breaking_____.

VERSE 3 (Alto and Bass lower harmony)

I must down to the seas again, for the vagrant drifting life,
The gull's way and the whale's way, with winds like a whetted knife.

CHORUS (2 part harmony)

And the wheels kick and the wind's song,
And the white sails are shaking,
And a grey mist on the sea's face,
It's a grey dawn breaking_____.

VERSE 4 (major key, unison)

We all know a place where we like to go, a place we can run to and hide,
A place we can stay 'til the end of the day, where we cast all our troubles aside.

VERSE 4 (repeat but with sop/tenor upper harmony)

We all know a place where we like to go, a place we can run to and hide,
A place we can stay 'til the end of the day, where we cast all our troubles aside.

CHORUS (2 part harmony)

And the wheels kick and the wind's song,
And the white sails are shaking,
And a grey mist on the sea's face,
It's a grey dawn breaking_____.
And a grey mist on the sea's face,
It's a grey dawn breaking_____.
